

Program

The 1st DEEP General Assembly

21 – 24 February 2017, Geilo

Tuesday – 21 February

Arrival by train from Oslo or Bergen and check in at Dr. Holms hotel

20:00 Welcome dinner

Wednesday – 22 February

Breakfast

9:00 Short welcome

9:15 “Presenting Geilo in a geological perspective” talk by Torgeir Andersen

10:00 Coffee break with fruit

10:10 DEEP travel grants

10:30 Key note speaker: Charles Lesher

12:00 Lunch

13:00 Workshop with Torunn Meyer: “How to present your research in a clear and effective way” :

Part 1: Presentation techniques for effective communication

How to use your body language, your voice and present your content in a convincing manner.

Part 2: Group Training

We will do group training in small groups with feedback, to try out and improve our presentations. (Participants will in advance be asked to have a ready prepared 5 min presentation to work on).

Part 3: Storytelling – Techniques on transforming information into stories

How can storytelling enable and strengthen your academic presentation?

When and how can you apply it?

15:00 Coffee break with fruit

17:30 Sandwiches will be served by the conference room

Free time/prepare for dinner and poster session

18:00 Poster session

20:00 Dinner

Thursday – 23 February

Breakfast

8:30 Workshop continues: “How to present your research in a clear and effective way”

Part 1: A short pitch: The structure

Part 2: Group Training

Part 3: Summary, reflections and questions

Summary of learnings, reflections on training, and a session of Q & A.

10:00 Coffee break with fruit

12:00 Lunch/preparation time/outdoor time for skiers

15:00 Talking about DEEP: What is next?

15:30 Key note speaker: Trond Torsvik

17:00 Sandwiches will be served by the conference room

Free time/prepare for presentations

17:30 Student popular science presentations

20:00 Dinner and awards

Friday – 24 February

Breakfast and check out