What is entrepreneurship?

Starting a business

Developing new products or services in existing businesses

Changing existing businesses to a changing reality and new demands
Why care about entrepreneurship?

Skills important to master in a rapidly changing world
Increased globalization & competition
Disruptive technologies
Changes in existing services, the energy market & the industrial structure

Develop something new
Participate in creating new solutions
Create your own workplace
Help solve social and environmental challenges
«In the future, more and more of our candidates will have to develop their own jobs. Their education must support this.»

Ole Petter Ottersen
Former Principal, UiO
No Isolation – Solutions to prevent loneliness and isolation through technology. Company co-founded by former student at Ifi.
